Station Camp, Cotacamund Dated the 8th July 19 36

From (Name) Lieut-Col. M.M.Khan, I.M.S.,
(Designation) Ag. Inspector-General of Prisons.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
HOME Department.

Sir,

One leaf.

With reference to para 3 of the G.O. read above, I have the honour to forward, herewith, a copy of letter No. R/1667, dated the 25th June 1936, from the Superintendent Central Jail, Bellary, explaining the delay in the submission of the case of the prisoner referred to above. The prisoner came in for release much earlier than the Superintendent anticipated as he was allowed Peace Remission on the period of imprisonment extended by Government - Viz., 5 years. The Superintendent should have put up the case if it - - presented any difficulty. He has since been instructed to refer all doubtful cases to the Head Office in future.

to

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Lieut-Col, I.M.S.
Ag. Inspector-General of Prisons.

Copy of letter No. R/1667, dated the 25th June 1936, from the Superintendent, Central Jail, Bellary.

I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of G.O.No. Mis. 862, Home, dated 5-6-36 communicated with your Endt. No.9010, dated 9-6-36 and to state that the convict No. 2162 Chenchu Bakkavadu was released from this Jail on 10-6-36.

2. The case of this prisoner was referred to Government by the Andaman authorities in 1931 and the Government in G.O.No. 3955, Law (General), dated the 23rd October 1931 declined to remit the unexpired portion of sentence. The peace remission noted on the warrant of the prisoner was one year and 8 months. As this grant of remission of 20 months was reported to Government when his case was originally put up, the grant of another 5 months' remission, it was thought, would be irregular, when the case is being put up for the second time. It was only a misinterpretation of the orders that led to the delay in the submission of the case. The instructions in G.O.No. 413, Law (General), dated the 10th February 1927 will be strictly followed in future.

(True Copy).

From the I.G. of Prisons, No.C.G.1045 dated 8-7-36

Convict - Repatriated from the Andamans - C.Bakkavadu,-Central Jail, Bellary - Release.

A.S.

While sanctioning the release of Convict No. 2162, Chencha Bakkavadu, Central Jail Bellary (an Andaman repatriate) the I.G. of prisons was asked to say why the prisoner's case was not submitted to Govt. for orders sufficiently in time before January last(when he was eligible for release)-vide- in this connection the notes on pp.12-14 leading to G.O.No. 862, Home dated 5-6-36.

2. The I.G. has forwarded the explanation of the Supdt. and reports that the Supdt. should have put up the case if it presented any difficulty and that he (the Supdt.) has since been instructed to refer all doubtful cases to the Head office in future. The Jail Supdt. has stated in his letter to the I.G. that "it was only a misinterpretation of the orders that lead to the delay in the submission of the case and that the instructions in G.O.No413, L.G. dated 10-2-1927 will be strictly followed in future."
